Name: STUDENT NAME HERE

Week 4 Talk Comment Form

Date of Talk: 02/12/2020

Title of Talk: Stirling's Formula

Name of Speaker: Matt Lamoureux

Speaker's Affiliation/Institution: The Hartford

Talk Summary: Your summary should be at least 1/3 of a page long and should highlight the main points of the talk.

Talk Reflection Questions:

1. What did you find most interesting (mathematically) about the talk? Please explain your answer.

2. Write one or two topics related to this talk that you may be able to write a paper about.

    After reading the list of "some possible topics in egunawan.github.io/writing/resources and doing the library research assignment, write down a few topics related to this talk that you can see yourself writing about.

3. If you were to write about the mathematical topics you wrote above, what would you need to read and learn more about? Please explain your answer.

4. Would the topics you wrote above make good topics for a 7-page paper? What about a 2-page paper? Why? Give pros and cons to using these topics.